

Coming Home...

Imagine you are a soldier who has survived four years of war. You have heard of the Armistice and cannot wait to tell your loved ones that you will be home soon.

Write them a letter telling of your experiences and what it means to you that you were one of the lucky ones.

Or...

You are a mother, father, wife, sister or brother of a soldier who has not survived the war. You have kept a journal over the last four years recording your life without your loved one. Write the final entry, detailing the impact their loss has on you and your family.

This is open to all years. Please write your name and form on your entry and hand it into your English teacher or the Library.

Closing date is Tuesday 23rd October 2018.
